

NOTES FOR CONTRIBUTORS - Sustainable Development

Aims and Scope

This journal is a wide interdisciplinary publication which seeks to further debate and discuss the important concept of sustainable development. The scope of the journal therefore allows for contributions which have a local, national or global focus from a philosophical to a practical perspective. All contributions are refereed with the aim of providing the readership with high quality, original material.

Initial manuscript submission.

Authors must supply:

1. An electronic copy of the final version (see section below),
2. A Copyright Transfer Agreement form with original signature (TO BE MAILED SEPARATELY to: (Scott Lam, Managing Editor, ERP Environment, Suite A, 13th Floor, Unionway Commercial Centre, 283 Queens Road Central, Sheung Wan, Hong Kong)– without this, we are unable to publish, and
3. If the article contains extracts (including illustrations) from, or is based in whole or in part on other copyright works (including, for the avoidance of doubt, material from on-line or intranet sources), the Author, at the Author's expense and in the form specified by the Publisher, will obtain from the owners of the respective copyrights, written permission to reproduce those extracts in the article in all territories and editions and in all media of expression and languages. All necessary permission forms must be submitted to the Publisher on delivery of the article.

Submission of a manuscript will be held to imply that it contains original unpublished work and is not being submitted for publication elsewhere at the same time. Submitted material will not be returned to the author, unless specifically requested.

Electronic submission

The electronic copy of the manuscript must be sent to the Editor at: sd@erpenvironment.com. Submissions should be in Word format.

Illustrations must be submitted in electronic format where possible. Save each figure as a separate file, in TIFF or EPS format preferably, and include the source file. Indicate the software package used to create them; we favour dedicated illustration packages over tools such as Excel or Powerpoint.

Manuscript style

The language of the journal is English, and the standard of English must be acceptable for an academic journal. If necessary, the English should be checked by a linguist before submission. All submissions, including book reviews, must have a title, be double-line spaced and have a margin of 3 cm all round. Illustrations and tables must be on separate pages and not be incorporated into the text. Their approximate position should be indicated in the text by the author, for example: TABLE 1 ABOUT HERE.

1. The title page must list the full title, short title of up to 70 characters, and names and affiliations of all authors. Give the full address, including email, telephone and fax, of the corresponding author who is to check the proofs.
2. Include the name(s) of any sponsors of the research contained in the paper, along with grant number(s).
3. Full length papers should be between 3500 and 6000 words long.
4. Supply an abstract of up to 150 words for all articles except book reviews. An abstract is a concise summary of the whole paper, not just the conclusions, and is understandable without reference to the rest of the paper. It should contain no citation to other published work.
5. Include up to eight keywords that describe your paper for indexing purposes.

Reference style

References should be cited in the text as name and year and listed at the end of the paper alphabetically. Where reference is made to more than one work by the same author published in the same year, identify each citation in the text as follows: (Collins, 1998a), (Collins, 1998b). Where three or more authors are listed in the reference list, please cite in the text as (Collins et al, 1998).

All references must be complete and accurate. Online citations should include date of access. If necessary, cite unpublished or personal work in the text or as footnotes, but do not include it in the reference list. References should be listed in the following style:

Illustrations

Supply each illustration on a separate page. Any photographs should be supplied as originals – photocopies or previously printed material will not be used. Line artwork must be high-quality laser output (not photocopies); grey shading is not acceptable. Lettering must be of a reasonable size that would still be clearly legible upon reduction, and consistent within each figure and set of figures. Supply artwork at the intended size for printing. The artwork must be sized to the text width of 7 cm (single column) and 16 cm (double column).

The cost of printing colour illustrations will be charged to the author. There is a charge for printing colour illustrations of £700 per page. If colour illustrations are supplied electronically in either TIFF or EPS format, they may be used in the PDF of the article at no cost to the author, even if this illustration was printed in black and white in the journal. The PDF will appear on the Wiley Interscience site.

Copyright

To enable the publisher to disseminate the author's work to the fullest extent, the author must sign a Copyright Transfer Agreement, transferring copyright in the article from the author to the publisher, and submit the original signed agreement with the article presented for publication. A copy of the agreement to be used (which may be photocopied) can be found in each volume of Sustainable Development and on the Wiley Interscience website at www.interscience.wiley.com. Copies may also be obtained from the journal editorial office or the publisher.

Further information

Proofs will be sent to the author for checking, by email if the author has an email address. This stage is only to be used to correct errors that may have been introduced during the production process. Prompt return of the corrected proofs, preferable within two days of receipt, will minimise the risk of the paper being held over to a later issue. Twenty-five complimentary offprints will be provided to the author who checked the proofs, unless otherwise indicated. Further offprints and copies of the journal may be ordered. There is no page charge to authors.
